Part 1 -- The Basics of Legacy Transactions

A new addition to the Deal Forum for 2023 is a luncheon session designed as an overview to runoff and of some of the types of transactions that are in the legacy “toolkit”. This session is being presented by AIRROC’s NextGen Council.

11:30 Arrival and Registration for Part 1

Lunch will be provided for registered attendees of this session.

12:00 – 1:00 Luncheon Session

What do you know about the insurance legacy sector? Do you know what LPT, ADC or IBT means? Why would a company want to enter into a legacy transaction? Learn about these topics and more in a session presented by our Next Gen Council geared to professionals that are new to the runoff space. The focus will be on how runoff works/supports the industry, key definitions, motivations for a legacy transaction, players and roles, process (review, pricing, completion), legal considerations.

Panelists:

Layla Trummer, ACAS, Actuary, Capital Partners | Munich Re US
Juliana Toes, Associate | Mayer Brown
Katie Reynolds, Reinsurance Specialist | The Hartford (Chair)
